Chapter 1 by Seth Murray

There I was falling from the choices I decided to make to be here. Satan rose from his throne deciding who to pick to join his underworld chaos, but it had to be me. Out of seven billion people I was the lucky one, I thought lucky was apart of my greatest qualities, apparently not. I landed from my endless falling to the underworld. I thought I would never see him before, but there he was. His description was very odd, as he whispered in my ear saying.
